

Since this administration's arrival, it has:

- suspended a tenured professor without due process and in violation of IU policy
- censored a long-planned art exhibition by internationally acclaimed IU alum Samia Halaby
- threatened the future of the historic Kinsey Institute by severing it from IU
- failed to defend an IU Assistant Professor from baseless, endangering, and illegal accusations
- ignored the 2022 full faculty vote calling for the recognition of the Indiana Graduate Workers Coalition
- undermined faculty governance at multiple campuses
- refused to safeguard academic freedom from political interference
